5 O'clock Edition! CORNERED IN CORN.

Heavy Failure of a Grain Firm.

SCENE IN CHICAGO'S CORN PIT.

Bountiful Crops Cause the Failure.

Fearful That Further Failures Will Follow.

Caught in a Corner in Corn.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—S. V. White & Co. have just sent an announcement of their assignment to the Stock Exchange. The members of the firm say their assignment is due to a corner in corn, and their interest in the stock or bond market is very limited.

The announced assignment and suspension of S. V. White & Co. of New York and Chicago was made on the Stock Exchange this morning. White says the failure is due to long speculation in corn and not in stocks. The liabilities of the firm are very large, but only a few hundred shares of stock are outstanding on contract. No estimates can be given.

The climax of to-day's catastrophe has been approaching culmination for the last two weeks. The news which has been carefully guarded leaked out yesterday afternoon after closing the Stock Exchange. The assignment of the assets of the embarrassed firm was then said to have been made, but not received. It was only after a thoughtful consideration and a very complete review of the situation that it was decided to make an assignment for the benefit of the creditors. There are no contracts outstanding on the Stock Exchange and no excitement caused there by the announcement. All the members of the firm were at the office, and when the announced suspension was made R. Stedman, as a friend, was authorized to make the following explanation: "The cause of the trouble is due wholly to the decline in corn. The house has been heavily long of September and October corn and the immense receipts were too much for it to stand."

The private fortune of S. V. White, so long noted for success and boldness of his speculative deals, is estimated at $2,000,000. A number of firms who were borrowing stocks from White & Co. received a notice from the firm before the opening of business to-day to sell shares and the market took the stock with scarcely a tremor. The failure caused but little excitement on the Produce Exchange, for the reason but few of the members were interested in the deal. It is stated it will affect Chicago principally. The price of corn dropped 1½ cents at the news of the failure.

The office of the firm, after the announcement of the suspension was made known, was crowded with bankers, brokers and reporters, all trying to get some information in regard to the failure. The firm, however, had no formal statement to make. It was noted that for some time it had been preparing to meet the disaster which was seen to be inevitable when the heavy deliveries of corn began to pour in, and for some days the firm declined to take any large deposits. Before the formal announcement was made here the firm had gone under and commission brokers advised their customers to be prepared for it. This advice started a heavy liquidation and caused the first genuine reaction that occurred in the stock market for six weeks, but Lackawanna, which was always considered under White's influence, declined only 1 per cent. Fears are expressed on many sides that other houses may be involved, but members of the embarrassed firm say no other firm is involved with them. The members of the New York house are S. V. White and Franklin W. Hopkins.

Chicago, September 22.—The effect of the failure of S. V. White & Co. was discounted in the lower figures which prevailed at the opening of the Board of Trade this morning, and the subsequent trading led advances in all the pits. Before business began the Secretary of the Board gave notice that White & Co. finding themselves unable to meet their obligations, desired those having trades with them to close them out under the rules. This announcement, though not expected in some quarters, created consternation for the moment, especially in the corn pit, where the firm had the heaviest line of open trades.

This firm was known to be the leading one of the band of brokers who have been representing a clique in the bull deal which has been running in September and October corn for several weeks. Many millions of bushels of September corn and October futures have been bought by this syndicate, whose identity traders have in vain tried to disclose, until the names came out as the result of to-day's failure. Of course the corn pit was the centre of attraction and a wild scene was enacted the moment the bell tapped, when traders clambered over each other in their efforts to be heard and all sorts of prices were asked and bid at the same moment. October, in which most of the unsettled trades existed, closed yesterday at 51½ and at the start there were few trades at and around 48 for that future, but tell a quickly advanced their prices and it was not until 49½ was reached that trading actually became active and the market was strong between 49 and 49½. An immense amount of grain was being brought in. The excitement then began to quiet down, whether because the trades were all covered or because cooler heads decided to prevent a panic by waiting until matters quieted a little cannot be determined. By 11:30 October had dropped to 49½. September, another bull future, which closed at 52½ yesterday, opened at 50 and sold down to 49. During the same time open trades in this month were not so numerous as in October, because, as it is understood, about 90 per cent of them had already been settled by the delivery of cash. Much of this still remains in market and is looked upon as a menace to cash prices. White & Co. had a line of trade in wheat, but not nearly so large as that in corn. The movement was largely in sympathy to that in corn, for wheat deals in the wheat pit soon closed out December, which closed at 100½. It opened at 99½, sold up to 99½ and down to 99½, at 11:30. The firm also had some deals in provisions, but they were not numerous and were soon closed out. The impression on the Board seems to be that the effect of the failure has spent its force unless further complications, not now foreseen, follow.

Manager Allen, of the Chicago branch of the house, could not be seen and his assistant said it was impossible to make any sort of a statement in regard to the firm's affairs. The comparative ease with which this market stood and absorbed the immense offerings of corn was generally marked with surprise and pleasure by the trade. The amount of grain which the clique had bought for September and October delivery was unknown, but it must be enormous, for the actual arrivals of corn here daily, for the past six weeks, approximated nearly a million bushels and nearly all this has been delivered on September contracts, while forwarding has been nearly as large. Much of this grain was bought at between 60 and 70 cents, against less than 50 as the price to-day. One estimate of the corn involved in the deal puts it at 10,000,000 and the average loss on it at 10 cents a bushel.

Rain in California.

Special to the GAZETTE.

SPANISHTOWN, Sept. 22.—It rained hard all night. Beans are considerably damaged; the hay and grain is mostly in. TRACY, Sept. 22.—Twenty-one hundred of an inch of rain fell here last night. SAN JOSE, Sept. 22.—There was quite a sharp shower last night and the sky is overcast to-day. Little damage done however. The fruit was on trays and is stacked at night and was not touched. Some varieties of grapes will be damaged, but the damage will be slight unless the wet weather continues.

Failure Follows.

By Associated Press.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 22.—Rea Bros. & Co., prominent brokers of this city and correspondents of White & Co. of New York, have temporarily suspended business, as the result of the failure of "Deacon" White's firm this morning.

Recess on the Sidewalks.

Reno presents quite an attractive appearance last night, and the sidewalks were well filled with people on business and pleasure bent. The electric lights in the walks cheerful and the shops and stores all showed to excellent advantage. Trade was fairly brisk and dealers all seemed busy, and for a first day the Fair seemed promising of success.

Star Beef Steers.

The People's Advocate says: O. North, of the Clover Valley, Humboldt county, cattle man is in Austin interviewing those who have beef steers for sale. He says that he could have cut 2,000 tons more hay than he tried to cut, and that his third crop of alfalfa is two feet high. We hope he will succeed in purchasing all the steers he wants.

Hopewell Over the Border.

By Associated Press.

GUTHRIE (O. T.), Sept. 22.—Simultaneous with the arrival of the hopewells, the homeseekers gathered the border and made a headlong rush over the line into the coveted country and onto quarter sections upon which their eyes had been feasting for some days and others for weeks and months. The rush was a mad one and made so by the fact that the number of homeseekers greatly exceeded the number of quarter sections available for settlement. There is room in the lands about 5,000 settlers, allowing acres for each. There were on the border waiting to claim available land fully 15,000 people, so that there were three people to every quarter section. It was no wonder then that the rush was a mad one. Like scenes were never witnessed before except in Oklahoma two years ago.

The craze to become owners of a part of the new lands caused a strange commingling of the various elements of society. A half hour's diligent work would have sufficed to prepare the most elaborately equipped boomer for the race into the country, but preparations were begun long before the hour of noon. Horses were hitched, wheels greased, saddle girths cinched and everything made snug as early as 10 o'clock, so anxious was everyone to be in readiness to move at the appointed time. When the noon hour did arrive all the pent up excitement found vent in the firing of revolvers and shouting and singing and cracking of whips and furious driving and running.

Horsemen, of course, had advantage over every other man in the race and most of the racers were horsemen. The man who proceeded to the border in a prairie schooner with his family, left his schooner, family and one horse on the border, and mounting the other, became a horseman. After locating his claim he will return and direct his possessions to his new home. Some more desperate cow-boys mounted steeds and the latter joining in the stampede, carried their riders to the interior, while others were unceremoniously unhorsed or unseated, not far from the border. The boomers were distributed among the various starting points about as follows: At Tooe, 3,000; Langston, 2,000; on the border of Kickapoo, 8,000, and on the Pottawatomie border, 2,000.

The allotment to the Pottawatomie Indians nearly exhausted the lands in their reservation, so that the homeseeker has little chance of locating a claim there. The Langston negro gathered a negro colonization society to the number of 1,500, and they went to move en masse into Cimarron Valley, the most fertile region, and located in a bunch. Five hundred whites, mostly cowboys, also had their eyes on that section, and each party made all sorts of threats of taking the land by force.

A force of deputy marshals and deputy sheriffs has been dispatched there to preserve order, and it is believed they will be able to maintain peace. One of the unique sights at Tooe was a company of young ladies from Guthrie who had formed a colonization company to proceed to the new lands and settle on adjoining claims. They were mounted on Texas ponies and were attired as near as might be in cow-boys costume, armed with revolvers and equipped for camping out. They made the race in a body. So far as ascertained up to the present time no serious conflict has taken place between rival claimants.

Further Confirmation.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—At a late hour last night Acting Secretary Wharton received a cablegram from United States Minister Egan, confirming the report of the suicide of ex-President Balmeada at Santiago de Chile. Although there were several telegrams received from Chile at the headquarters of the Chilean Congressional envoys in this city during the past few days, none make any specific mention of the suicide of Balmeada on Saturday.

Immigration Convention.

Special to GAZETTE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—At the morning session of the Immigration Convention the report of the committee on resolutions and permanent organization was read. The report declared it was the sense of the convention that all desirable immigrants should be promoted and encouraged, and to that end recommended that permanent organization to be known as the California State Emigration Bureau, with headquarters at San Francisco, be organized, the Board consist of seventy-two members, which San Francisco county shall have five, Los Angeles and Alameda counties three each, Sacramento, Fresno, San Diego and Humboldt one each. The Board thus elected shall select officers and appoint committee on transportation, finance, legislation and one of their members to be upon the congressional delegation to the necessity of completing the survey of the government lands of the State and the improvement of rivers and harbors. The report also declares it is the sense of the convention that competing transportation lines, both by rail and water, would do much to promote the development of the State and that the importance of the early construction of the Nicaragua canal is also realized.

Ostrom of Yuba read a minority report, which declared it to be the duty of the convention to confer with representatives of the transcontinental railroads to ascertain on what terms they will build roads to this State, and to induce them to build competing lines to tide water in this State. Both reports were discussed freely by members of the convention.

The minority report was finally adopted by a vote of 112 to 21. A recess was then taken until 2 o'clock.

Murder and Suicide.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Crazed with jealousy and drink, Oscar Gund, a laborer, this morning at 1½ home on North Side, blew out the brains of his wife with a revolver and then ended his own life in the same manner. The couple have been living together unhappy for some time because of the husband's cruelty. Mrs. Gunderman had had him arrested and held in bonds to keep the peace, and this no doubt caused the tragedy.

Searles Will Case.

By Associated Press.

SARLEM (Mass.), Sept. 22.—The hearing in the Searles will case opened in the Probate Court this morning. Wm. W. Dodge testified to drawing up the will of Mrs. Searles. It was read to her and she signed it after declaring it expressed her wishes. She was to all appearances of sound mind. Witness mentioned drawing up another will, and the Court on motion ordered it produced. Incidental to the request, it was stated that Timothy Hopkins would not be conceded the right to appear as an adopted son.

Borleigh proceeded to cross examine the witness, his main point being the fact that the name "Timothy Hopkins" was written in apparently different ink in the blank space left for the name.

Dodge stated his impression was that he left the space until he got to Methuen, as he was not sure whether there was a middle initial. He had been instructed to draw the will leaving all the property to Mr. Searles, and as his duty as a lawyer required, he inserted a second section regarding the omission of the name of Timothy Hopkins.

He called special attention of Mrs. Searles to this and told her he could modify it if she desired, but she stated it expressed her wishes and was executed. Wm. M. Thornton, another witness to the will, corroborated the last witness. Cross-examinations showed the witness could not read a single word. Wm. O. Norris, the third witness to the will, corroborated the previous witness as to the execution of two wills. He also witnessed a will for Mr. Searles since the death of Mrs. Searles.

Steamer's Officers Searched.

By Cable and Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—A Dutch journalist, one of the survivors of the Italian steamship Taormina, which recently sunk on the coast of Greece, has written a letter in which he makes serious charges against the Italian officers. He says the Taormina's crew, led by the first officer, basely deserted the captain and they clambered "like rats" on board the Thessalia. Only a handful of sailors, the journalist adds, remained loyal, and they were unable to lower the Taormina's boats, which were filled with miscellaneous articles and so secretly fixed and sheltered from the sea that it was impossible to launch them. Continuing, he says the passengers did not find any life boats, or life rafts, or life saving apparatus of any kind, and he attributed the great loss of life to these defects.

TO-DAY'S RACES.

A Dark Gloomy Day But a Good Natured Crowd to Make up for it.

The first race on the program was a half-mile and repeat with Joe Harding ridden by Lawless, Mackay mounted by Mackay and Vinco by Morton. The judges were Chamberlain, Martin and Foley. The first heat was won by Mackay, Vinco second and the favorite behind. Time, 50 seconds. Pools sold for the race $10 on Harding to $6 on the other two. The second heat was very exciting, Mackay and Harding coming down the stretch neck and neck and Mackay crossing the wire just a nose in the lead, with Vinco third. Time, 49 seconds.

The Reno Stake race between Bessie Shannon, Almost, Wild Oats and Nevada was closely contested between Nevada and Almost, with Bessie Shannon a good third and Wild Oats way behind. Nevada came in, however, an easy winner. Time, 2:09. A dispute arose as to which horse won the Reno Stake race, as Almost's rider weighed out 13½ pounds light and Nevada's 7 pounds light, but it proved to be incorrect and the race was given to Nevada as at first reported.

Several scrapping matches were indulged in over the dispute and county bridge matters, but without serious result. The quarter dash between Cap, R. N. and Elaine was hotly contested, but was won by Cap, with R. N. second and Elaine third. Time, 24 seconds.

The District 2:40 trot between Flora Bell, Box, Emeralds, Robt. L. and Antec, Jr., was on when the GAZETTE went to press.

THE Salt Lake Tribune says: The Congress was a good thing. It did not add very much to the work done by the Denver Congress; the same arguments were used; the same conclusions reached, practically; but it was a gathering such as never had before in Salt Lake City, or Utah; and we know this morning that a great many gentlemen have gone away from here with new ideas of this region; that they will report those ideas to their friends at home, and the result will be a better acquaintance. Then, again, whenever the citizens of eighteen or nineteen States and Territories come together and have a three or four day's wrestle, they have a better idea of their neighbors; and when all, as here, come with the determination to be as agreeable as their duties will permit, the thought over all is that Americans, wherever they are found, are a pretty good people; that it is worth something to be a citizen of such a country as ours. And after such a meeting as this, if a Utah man wants something of a California man or a California man wants something of a Utah man or a Colorado man, added to the natural politeness which prevails among people, there will be a particular desire to oblige. Then there is a great deal learned in exchanging ideas. Respect is increased when the people of one State learn what in the industrial and other lines the people of another State are performing. There are new problems of industry presenting themselves every day in these Western countries; and when one learns of these, his knowledge is increased; his respect for his fellow-workmen is increased. But the chief use of these gatherings is that they break down all State lines in thought, and men cease to think about another man's living outside of the State in which he lives, and he thinks of him merely as a brother American who is entitled to his best wishes and any reasonable service whenever commanded.

Mr. Clarke of Montana asked that the next congress might be held in his State, and he gave one reason for it which we presume not one man in that convention ever thought of before, which is that Montana has more land that needs irrigation, and more water with which to irrigate that land, than any other State in the Republic. Which is really a truth.

A delegate from Oregon gave a new idea of the arid land in their State, by saying that there was more than they had in Wyoming. He is mistaken in that; but the idea he intended to convey was correct after all, that there is a vast area of arid land in eastern Oregon. Another delegate, mentioning the results of irrigation in California, the miracles that had been performed, and the mighty profits resulting from the few acres of land thoroughly cultivated, made also a revelation, and so it went everywhere. The delegation from one State were schoolmasters to the others; and the oftener these meetings can be had, the more association people can have with each other, the better Americans they will be and the better men. We believe the holidays of a State are better spent in going to another State, and mingling with the people, than any other way. One of these days when electricity will run the cars, and the cars themselves will be made of aluminum, and it will take but a few hours to go half way across the continent, the people will so assimilate that when it comes to any National question, they will consider for themselves, and State lines will not be thought of.

THE Dardanelles incident has called fresh attention to the danger to the peace of Europe given by Russo-Turkish relations. The historian Edward A. Freeman, who is perhaps the best informed student of the Eastern question in the world, is preparing an article for the Forum on the peace of Europe, in which he will set forth the delicate relations of all the European governments to one another regarding the danger-point.

A WOMAN BEAR-SLAYER.

The Plucky Deed of a New Hampshire Housewife.

In the "History of Henniker," New Hampshire, it is related that Mr. Moses Huse set off with a friend on a bear hunt one autumn morning to be gone for the day. A little before sundown Mrs. Huse began her preparations for supper against the time of the hunters' return. In those early days few houses had cellars underneath; but a potato hole was dug near the dwelling and covered over during the winter with sods or thatch. In this hole the season's vegetables were stored.

Mrs. Huse handed a pan to her little girl and bade her go out to the cellar hole and get some vegetables. The child obeyed, but soon ran in, saying that she had heard a noise in the leaves and was afraid. Her mother assured her there was nothing to be afraid of, and sent her back; but the little girl soon returned with the same story, when the mother said, impatiently: "Wal, you stay here, an' I'll go myself."

As Mrs. Huse neared the potato hole she heard the noise which had alarmed the child. Upon going nearer she espied a bear digging in the leaves for asparagus.

She immediately gave chase, picking up, as she ran, a huge pine knot, "with a train as long as yer arm," she said afterwards, and came up with bruin just as he had begun the ascent of a tree.

Mrs. Huse was of Indian descent, of wiry, powerful muscle. She had often taken her end of the log in clearing the land, and now, equal to the emergency, she dealt the bear a heavy blow with the knot, which broke his back, and he fell to the ground. She quickly dispatched him, dragged him to the house and dressed him.

When Mr. Huse and his companion returned, the woman was cooking bear steak for supper. They were much astonished, and asked where she obtained the meat. She told them, and added, in her quaint dialect: "When he fallen from the tree, I lammed on, I did; and I killed him, I did, I did!"

The energetic woman had beaten the hunters, whose search for bears had been fruitless and who had returned without game of any sort.

COLORED FIRES.

Formulas by Which Strange Effects Are Produced.

It may be taken for granted that many readers will be interested to learn how the colored fires, with which the "birthday of our country" is popularly celebrated are prepared. The process of combining the materials is simple. Striking differences in color produced by slight changes in composition.

"Western Druggists" gives some formulas which clear up the mystery of these strange effects.

For the production of red, green, yellow and blue fires, one-fifth part of the composition is shellac. As this is a constant quantity it is apparent at once that the shellac has nothing to do with determining the color. It serves the purpose that charcoal does in the manufacture of gunpowder. It holds the other elements in desired form, and regulates the rate of combustion.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Pimples.

The old idea was that facial eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave poisons. Thus the old Sarsaparilla contained potash, a drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more eruptions. You have noticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas. It is however now known that the stomach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiation or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, results in pimples. A clean stomach and healthful digestion purifies it and they disappear. Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparillas and Joy's. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 400 Hayes St., S. F., writes: "I have for years had indigestion. I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face. Hearing that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently, I tried it and the pimples immediately disappeared."

AT THE TRACK.

The Second Day Brings a Big Crowd to See the Reno Stake Race.

The sky was cloudy this morning and the weather a little too cool to enjoy the Fair without an overcoat. The stock parade this morning was very good. Up to last night the following entries had been made:

Phillip Campbell, Reno—Roadster, 4-year-old mare.

T. W. Clark, Reno—Saddle horse.

Dr. Dawson, Reno—Three-year-old mare for roadster and sweepstakes.

H. Ede, Reno—One-year-old graded Clydesdale stallion; 4-year-old graded Clydesdale mare; 1-year-old graded Clydesdale mare.

W. Ede, Sierra Valley—Four-year-old Norman stallion.

J. Ede, Reno—Three-year-old graded Norman stallion and sweepstakes.

T. J. Gardner, Reno—Four-year-old roadster and sweepstakes.

R. H. Kinney, Reno—Colt under one year, graded Englishshire; 4-year-old Norman mare.

R. C. Leeper, Reno—Four-year-old stallion roadster and sweepstakes.

periment Station of which a more extended account will be given later on. But there is as yet absolutely no fruit entered. This seems certainly a lack of interest on the part of fruit growers, for the premiums are very liberal and would amply repay any one to make a display, even if they had no interest in the Fair. The ladies of the Relief Corps have charge of the second floor, which they have gaily trimmed with flags and bunting.

The well-known firm of John Bruner of Sacramento occupies nearly the entire end of the pavilion, and shows the latest styles in furniture, curtains and portieres.

John Sunderland exhibits a fine lot of shoes and furnishing goods, and Swisher & Bender some very fine work in photographs and crayons.

The cases around the hall are well filled with fancy work.

An improvement is noticed in the band stand being placed in the center of the floor instead of at one end as formerly.

The art display is not extensive, which is to be regretted, as it adds greatly to the interest of the Pavilion.

To-day numerous entries are being made, so by the middle of the week the Pavilion will be well worthy the attention of visitors.

THE RAINMAKER.

Successful at Kelton and Now Operating at Nampa.

Melbourne began his rain-making at Nampa, Utah, yesterday, and from the looks of the clouds here the managers of the State Fair ought to pay him something to quit. The Tribune says:

The rain man operates in secret; very much so. At Kelton school house he had clothes and papers tacked up in the windows, which were a little way down from the top and the doors were locked. A little tunnel was run up through the roof, the doctor waltzed in with his little grip and then the fun began. Local Land Agent Tarpey of the Central Pacific put in a good share of his time outside that school house, but he was got durned if he could tell how the game was worked. He was satisfied, however, of one thing, viz., that Melbourne rustled like a yoke of

The Directors of the State Agricultural Society request all business houses in Reno to close their respective places of business on Friday, Sept. 25, from 11 A. M. to 6 P. M., and trust all will comply.

PERSONALS.

G. S. Nixon is in from Winnemucca. Dr. Fee of Cortez is in for the week. L. Godchaux of Humboldt arrived this morning.

West George is in Reno looking as genial as ever.

Lieut. Gov. Poudjais is in Reno taking in the Fair.

Hon. W. J. Westerfield of Lyon is here this week.

Judge Bigelow and family spent the day at the Fair.

Frank Paul of Hamilton, Nevada, arrived last night.

General Torreyson came over from Carson last night.

Miss Gail Jackson of Candelaria arrived this morning.

P. M. Bowler of Hawthorne is registered at the Riverside.

Mrs. W. J. Westerfield came over from Dayton this morning.

Alec McConne and sister came down on the 10 train from Virginia.

Mrs. A. J. McCarthy, of Hawthorne, is registered at the Riverside.

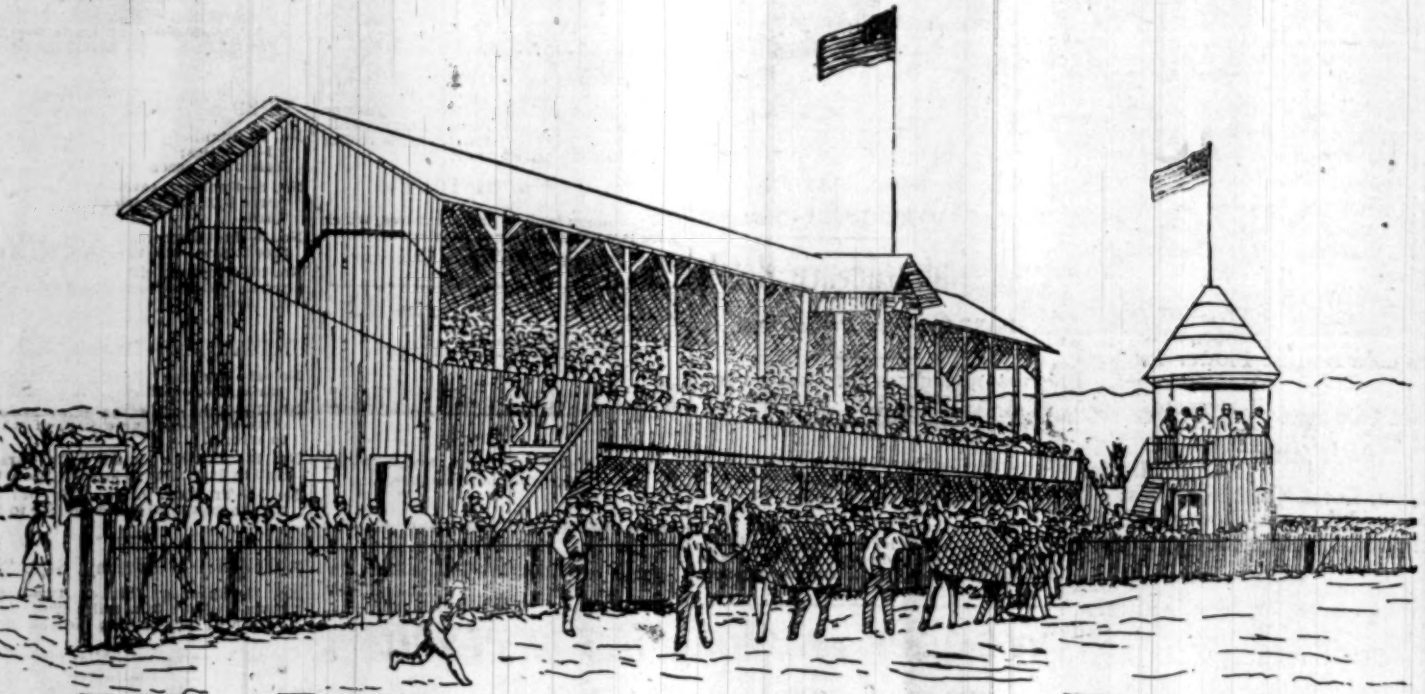

Miss Emma Vanderbilt and mother are visiting Mrs. A. E. Cheney.

E. Stauffer of Winnemucca arrived from California this morning.

J. M. Steinberger came in from Long Valley last night to take in the Fair.

George Watt of Lander, with his daughter, passed through going west last night.

Miss Ella Bender spent the day in Reno, and will go to San Francisco on this evening's train.

SCENE ON THE TRACK JUST BEFORE THE RENO STAKE RACE.

W. J. Luke, Reno—Four-year-old stallion, horse of all work.

G. W. Mape, Reno—Team, 4-year-old stallions.

Maggie Mayberry, Reno—Four-year-old graded thoroughbred mare and sweepstakes; 2-month-old colt (horse of all work) and sweepstakes.

D. T. Machomich, Reno—Two-year-old graded Norman mare.

N. C. Nelson, Verdi—Two-year-old filly, horse of all work.

W. J. Segraves, Susanville—Three-year-old roadster, stallion.

Benton Sparks, Reno—Best matched team.

H. Stevens, Reno—Best matched team.

F. W. Smith, Reno—Best single gelding, 4-year-old.

R. Bagley, Reno—Best Short-Horned Durham bull, 3-year-old.

J. N. Evans, Reno—Three-year-old Short-Horned Durham bull; Two-year-old Short-Horned Durham bull.

B. Campbell, Reno—Trio Brown Leghorns; trio Toulouse geese.

E. A. Stewart, Reno—Trio Polish chickens.

Besides those already mentioned, Joseph Marsen will enter to-day 20 head of Short-Horned Durham Bulls. Seymour Bryant will also enter a big family of the same stock, and many entries will be made in the horse show. T. G. Herman was in line with his family of Cleveland Bays. The stock parade was very good indeed. Theo. Winters with old Marion and her family of ten, headed by the world buster El Rio Rey, was a feature. But thus far there seems to be something lacking in the speed ring, for there were only four starters in the Reno Stake race, namely: Bessie Shannon, Wild Oats, Almot and Nevada, and no contest at that. The first race to-day was a half mile and repeat between Joe Harding, Mackey and Vinco. The second the Reno Stake and the third a quarter dash between R. N., Cap and Elaine.

The grand stand looked charming filled with pretty maidens and stately women. The quarter stretch and the space in front of the grand stand, presented an animated scene, and barring the weather, all seemed to enjoy the day. An account of the races will be found on the GAZETTE's first page.

THE PAVILION.

As the exhibits are being entered rather slowly, it is impossible at this writing to give more than a slight outline of the displays. On the lower floor the Riverside Mills has an exhibit of flour; there are also several entries of vegetables and a good display of the various grains by the Ex-steers while at the job, and when called to the door he had coat and vest off, was perspiring, and looked pale and tired. There was no noise more than one person moving around would make. Mr. Tarpey occasionally cheered Mr. Melbourne up with exhortations in modern Egyptian.

One thing peculiar about Melbourne's surroundings is his 75 lbs. grip. This he will not let out of his sight when traveling. When about to enter the depot restaurant at Ogden the other evening he had that grip with him. The doorkeeper said it was against rules to take grips in the dining-room. He would check it. The rain-man demurred; the doorkeeper was inexorable, and the scene ended in the doctor's going up the street to the nearest livery for his booted feed with the grip tightly gripped in his hand.

OPERA HOUSE.

A Good Company and a Change of Program Every Evening.

Last night the Specialty Co. opened the Fair season to a fair audience, for a first night and gave a good all around performance, which showed the troupe to be possessed of excellent talent in their various specialties.

Harry Jackson is a musical artist that can entertain an audience as long as he keeps the stage. Geo. Dunbar is a fifty-trimmed the Prince of the Slack Wire and gives a daring exhibition of his skill in that line. Mons. Revella is an artistic juggler that gives his act with scenic effects of an interesting kind. The other specialists are all artists in their line and the show proves entertaining from the rise to the fall of the curtain. Altogether it furnishes a pleasant evening's entertainment and will prove a treat for visitors at the Fair. The admission is but 75 cents for reserved seats and 50 cents for others, so take it in.

Wool Market.

The San Francisco Butcher's Gazette says: There is not yet enough fall Nevada wool on hand to make a market, but what is here is held at 13 to 13½, with no takers. The little trade is in wool of a hand-to-mouth order. There are no Eastern inquiries and the local scourers are doing very little. The supply of fall wool this year will be light, as many of the mountain sheep will not be sheared, which will make a good supply of long staple wool next spring. The plains sheep have to be sheared to prevent the spring wool being defective.

dence of piping times of peace: The public are hereby notified that all the Chinamen here now are "good flenda and good cosins, no more dabble, all good flenda now."—Honey Bock.

The record of cures accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla can never be completely written. The peculiar curative powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla are such that when everything else has failed, if your blood is impure, our digestion out of order, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Chloride Belt says: A gentleman who was recently in Big Pine, Inyo county, says that in many instances apples, peaches, etc., will not be gathered from the trees. The supply exco is the demand at 2½ cents per pound, and the natives refuse to sell at a less figure.

The Picnic Record of the 17th inst. says: With the present number of men employed hereabouts, Picnic ought to take on a different aspect within the next sixty days. There are no less than 200 men on the payroll of the Picnic Company at this time and the force is liable to be increased.

Henry T. Oxnard, President of the Chino sugar factory, has made a statement showing that the actual cost of making sugar at Chino is a fraction over six cents per pound, not reckoning interest on the plant, and that the sugar sells at 5 cents net, so that but for the bounty, the factory would be operating at a loss.

At the Watsonville (Cal.) Sugar Factory the crushing of beets began last Tuesday, and Wednesday the first sugar of the season was produced and polarized at 97 and 98 degrees. The first day 226 tons of beets were used, and on Thursday the quantity was increased to 260 tons. The full capacity of 350 tons daily will not be worked until Monday next, when a run of 75 days will begin. The output will be about 45 tons of sugar daily. There are 140 men at work.

Procure it Before Leaving Home. Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years. On the 28th of last May, while in Des Moines, en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of cholera. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 25 cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him. For sale by J. B. McCullough.

Governor Colcord, Attorney-General Torreyson, wife and sister came over from Carson to-day.

Miss Johnson, a University student, was taken to her home in Wadsworth on last night's train, quite sick.

Nick Fryer left to-day for Spring City. He is now in negotiation with eastern parties for the sale of the Cliff mine.

Senator Stewart and wife arrived from Carson last night, with a party of friends, the latter going on to San Francisco.

THE FAIR WAGONS.

Some Belies of Better Days Among Them, and as Good as New.

All kinds of vehicles are pressed into service to transport the crowds from town to the Fair grounds. All are covered and comfortable, and are principally of the carry-all kind, and of various patterns, from the finest down. Among the other varieties is a Concord coach, lettered Wooruff & Ennor on the bed and Eureka on the box. This was one that run from Eureka to Palisade in 1870, or 21 years ago, and is to-day as substantial as ever, and with paint and decorations as bright as though it had been under cover ever since it was taken off the road in 1875.

A Sure Cure for Itches.

This form, as well as blind, bleeding and protruding, yield at once to Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected, shrinks tumors, allays itching and excites a permanent cure.
